LIFE IS BETTER
WHEN YOU'RE LAUGHING

The Theory of Fun

Chapter 1 by Noah

You know, I used to be like you walking around following rules, "contributing to society". In my perspective, I would say my eyes opened up to the world, but most people would probably just call me an idiot. I'm not some philosopher, i'm just a lucky lazy manipulative dick that understands the world. If I told you that I can sum up the meaning of life in two words, you would probably think i'm lying.

Have fun and procreate.

Those are the words I live by, my philosophy to life. I'm on this earth for a short amount of time. I'm not here to get a job and work in an office. My only goal in life is to have fun, and no one is going to stop me. You could say i'm the Ferris Bueller of real life.

I never think about the past or future. I have no stress. I may not be the smartest man, but I know i'm smarter than most for understanding that the only thing that matters in life is to have fun. (Scratch that, i'm not smart, i'm extremely clever, but in the grand scheme of things, they're basically the same thing.)

Here is my story:

I flunked out of high school, not because i'm not intelligent, but because i'm lazy. I was in all advanced classes, but laziness got the best of me. I started to not do work, failed classes, got moved down to basically retard classes. Even though the classes were easy I still failed because I again didn't do any work. I just flunked out of my act next year, that didn't happen. Do I regret this? I don't know. My friend asked me once

"What is something you're proud of?" I said "Everything I've done has made me who I am, and changing one thing would have probably resulted in me becoming
